

---

Posted on Thu, Jan. 27, 2005

Bush will honor Northfield volunteer

T.J. Powell of Northfield is to be recognized today by President Bush, who will present the 38-year-old member of the Northeast Ohio Medical Reserve Corps with the President's Volunteer Service Award.

Powell is the chief of NEOMRC, which provides medical support services for public events and emergencies. He is a certified emergency medical technician who volunteers 800 to 1,000 hours a year. He also has spent eight years as a volunteer firefighter for the Northfield Center Fire Department.

Bush is in Cleveland for a discussion of new medical technology at the Cleveland Clinic.

---

© 2005 Beacon Journal and wire service sources. All Rights Reserved.
<http://www.ohio.com>